

Resolution 2019-01
Submitted As: Diocesan Council
Title: Appointment of Chair of General
Convention Deputation-Canon 27

Resolution to change a Diocesan Canon? Yes

Whereas, Canon 27 (Of Deputies to General Convention and Provincial Synod) says the following:

(f) The Bishop shall appoint a Clergy and a Lay Deputy to serve as Co-Chairs of the Deputation.

Resolved, The Diocesan Bishop shall appoint one chair of the deputation from the four elected clergy deputies or the four elected lay deputies.

Further Resolved, Canon 27 shall be changed as follows to accommodate the appointment of one chair:

Section 1 (f) The Bishop shall appoint a Clergy and a Lay Deputy to serve as Co-Chairs of the Deputation. one chair of the deputation from the four elected clergy deputies or the four elected lay deputies.

Section 2 (b) The deputation chairs shall fill out the Testimonial of Deputy Selection and the Alternate Deputy Selection Forms and any necessary amendments provided by the General Convention Office. Such forms shall be signed and submitted to the General Convention Office by the Secretary of Diocesan Convention in a timely manner.

SECTION 6. Report to Diocesan Convention.

The Deputation Co-Chairs will prepare a report to Diocesan Convention regarding General Convention. The report will be for the next Diocesan Convention immediately following General Convention and will be in writing, no more than two pages in length.

Explanation:

The General Convention Office does not recognize Co-Chairs for a Deputation, only a Chair. For the past two General Conventions the Diocese of Florida has submitted the names of Co-Chairs but the General Convention Office has then changed this to only one chair. This chair is the only one authorized to sign for deputy-alternate deputy exchanges, vote-by-order form and other official business. It is therefore better that the bishop appoints only one chair.
